Two Concerts You Really Should Hear!! S. Williams

On Sunday, February 5 at 4 p.m., the legendary Philadelphia Brass quintet will be performing here at St. John's along with organist Stephen Williams and timpanist Steve Mathiesen. In case you're not familiar with the group, they are known world-wide for their excellence as a group and as individual players. They've even been called "American's Finest Quintet" in reviews of their performances. The program will not be ALL brass, organ and drums, but will mostly feature the brass doing what they are known for, playing music written specifically for the quintet. This concert was originally scheduled for last October, but the freakish snow storm forced us to postpone. We know that February 5th is also Super Bowl Sunday, but we guarantee that if you come for the

Our long-term Treasurer, Don Brannan, will be ending his term as our congregational Treasurer at the conclusion of our Annual Meeting this year. Don has served in this capacity for more than twenty years, with terms extending over the tenure of three Senior Pastors.

Don says he has really enjoyed being the Treasurer. "It's a fun job," he reports, "I've had excellent bookkeepers who made my job easier."

concert, and even stay a bit for the reception of amazing goodies, you'll be home in plenty of time for the kick-off, no problem!

And . . . the next Sunday, February 12 at 4 p.m., extraordinary singers Lauren Curnow and Christa Warda will sing a program entitled "Opera Divas" that will include incredible music written by well-known opera composers. At St. John's, we are very fortunate to hear Lauren every Sunday morning as one of our Chancel Choir section leaders, and Christa Warda is one of our on-call "friends" who is always willing to help us out when we need extra sound and finesse. Both Lauren and Christa have lots of experience on the opera and recital stage, and both are members of the voice faculty at Muhlenberg College. Vincent Trovato is one of the finest accompanists in the area, and also on the faculty at Muhlenberg, and will be the pianist. Again, not to be missed! Reception following.

You are invited to a Choral Evensong on Sunday, February 26 at 5:30 p.m. This is the First Sunday in Lent, and with great and inspired music on hand that helps us focus on prayer, meditation, discipline, and the spiritual journey of the season, we invite you to come and share in the beauty of the moment that is experienced through the liturgy, the song, the prayers, the Word, and the fellowship. You are invited to make the special effort to come participate with us as we turn our attention to the 'glory of these 40 days' that Christ fasted and prayed. This is not a concert by any means, but a drama and ritual intended to nourish our spiritual lives, with music that is specifically intended to sooth us and draw us closer to the presence of God, particularly as we embark once again on our spiritual journey. All are invited to join us. The Worship & Music Committee will provide a wine and cheese reception in the Gathering Place following the evensong.

Invitation to Lent Pr. George

During February, our spiritual lives take a turn, from celebrating the light that has dawned among us in Jesus Christ, toward a focus on spiritual growth in the season of Lent. The forty days of Lent begins this year on February 22, with Ash Wednesday.

Many of us grew up with an observance of Lent that focused on penitence, on being sorry for our sins, on the sufferings our sin caused Christ. These are indeed themes of Lent, but, in recent times, the church has recovered a deeper and richer observance of Lent, one that embraces penitence, but is not limited to it.

We have recovered a Lenten focus on spiritual renewal. Lent is a time, 40 days, to focus more intently on the elements of our faith that are always the most basic in our life in God. So, on the second Sunday of Lent this year, we will hear Christ's call to Nicodemus to be "born again".

For us, this means a return to our baptism, to the waters in which we die to sin, and are raised to new life with Christ. Lutherans have insisted that Baptism is not only a onetime event, but also an identity to be renewed and deepened. We die daily to sin, Luther said, and rise daily to new life through the mercy and love of God.

So, our Ash Wednesday liturgy includes a call to a discipline that contends against evil, and resists whatever it is that leads us away from God. We are invited to take up the disciplines of Lent: self-examination and repentance, prayer and fasting, sacrificial giving and works of love.

You will hear more in a special mailing about your opportunities to observe this holy season. In the meantime, please mark your calendar for Ash Wednesday, February 22. You will have three opportunities to worship that

These are exciting times for St. John's!

We have completed the first phase of our discernment process, during which we listened for God's direction, showing us what it is that God wants us, the people of God at St. John's, to do in the next chapter of our ministry. It has become clear that God still has a mission for us at the corner of Fifth and Walnut. And, people are responding to God's call. What is happening? Let me share a few of the divinely inspired initiatives now underway:

- A dedicated group, under the leadership of Jim Hausman, is beginning an outreach to re-engage with members who have recently become less active. The group's first goal is simply share the love and care we have received from God.
- Volunteers continue to serve at Jefferson School in a variety of ways (see the article on Eugene Ribecky in the newsletter.) This area of Christian service is an important way to demonstrate the love of God for the people who live in our immediate neighborhood, and will lead to fruitful connections with the community.
- Members of Vestry are recruiting people from the community to serve on one of four "Think Tanks", to help us learn how we can best serve and support each of four constituencies in our mission area. These "think-tanks" will continue our discernment process, and lead us into concrete ways to serve during 2012.

- We now have a youth group that meets once a month for fellowship. We had ten youth, grades 6-12 at our first event in December, and it was a great start for this ministry. We are looking at a variety of activities, some social, some service, in upcoming months. Look for more news as it unfolds.
- We have four students in our confirmation ministry, which is held in conjunction with four other city Lutheran Churches: Grace, St. Mark's, St. Joseph's, and St. Luke's. All together, there are about 15 students who get together for study. The combined group recently visited the Muslim Association of the Lehigh Valley to learn more about the faith of some of our neighbors.
- The parents of our Sunday School students are planning to hold events for families, beginning in March.
- There are a good number of people expressing interest in membership at St. John's, some of whom will participate in the Basics Class we will be holding in February and March.

God is blessing us, calling us to renewed service in the Spirit of Jesus Christ. God has a purpose for St. John's. As is ever true, the mission will call upon us to embrace change, and new paths of ministry. God calls us, you and me, to pray. To grow. And to serve.

Very exciting! Don't you think?

day, to receive ashes and the promise of God's forgiveness:

- A brief spoken service at 7:30 AM in the chapel, for those who want to receive ashes first thing in the morning, and those who are on their way to work.
- An ecumenical noon service, sponsored by the Lehigh County Conference of Churches, at Zion's Reformed Church, on Hamilton Mall.

- A full service, with music, in our sanctuary at 7:00 PM, with the imposition of ashes and Holy Communion.

You are strongly encouraged to make every effort to attend one of these services to begin this holy season humbly and expectantly.

Thank you to the following people who donated blood during the months of November and December:

Elaine Brobst    Cheryl Hausman    Anne McClelland    Linda Bollinger

We ended the year 30 donations shy of our yearly goal of 85.

Jefferson School Update

A number of St. John's people are now volunteering at Jefferson School on a regular basis. Some help in the classrooms, some in the office, some at the bi-weekly Food Bank, among others. One of the regular volunteers from our congregation is Gene Ribecky. We asked Gene to offer some comments on his experience.

Q: Why did you say yes to volunteer at Jefferson School?

I live in a retirement home and think I should be active. I was a student at Jefferson School.

Q: What types of things do you do there?

They have a program for the youngsters who are being courteous, good students, etc., and they get tickets. I collect the tickets and have lunch with them and give them their prizes. The children are so well-behaved and you get caught up in their enthusiasm.

Q: What do you like most?

It gets me out of the apartment, away from the TV. It keeps me active. I get to socialize with the staff at Jefferson. I'm so impressed with them. They care about the students and are so appreciative of volunteers.

Q: Would you encourage someone else to volunteer at Jefferson?

Yes. It's good for St. John's outreach. I think it's good the church is doing it. I lived in East Allentown and came to St. John's school program when Pastor Schaeffer was here.

Once again our "Cookie Caper" was a big success. We filled 56 tins with delicious treats. This is all with gratitude to our wonderful bakers, candy makers, packers and delivery people. There was a great assortment of goodies and were packed with holiday greetings, candy canes and tons of LOVE.

Many thanks to ALL who helped with this much appreciated gift.

Thanks for the Thoughts and Sweets

To all the cookie bakers.

Thank you from Dolores Bartholomew.

Thank you for thinking about me & bringing me a box of goodies, so thoughtful of you. Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Ruth Willistein

I thank all the good, generous people who baked and assembled the delicious tins of cookies and candies. It was a wonderful surprise and I appreciate the goodies.

Sally Gery

Thank you to all those members who participated in the cookie caper. Having surgery at this time of year had me feeling a little down. It was so nice to receive the tin of cookies and the greeting from St. John's. Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness.

Mary Decker

Sorry I missed you when you came and brought me this nice can of cookies. I was at the doctors. I just celebrated my 90th birthday. I'm a lifetime member of St. John's. Many memories.

Thanks
Sarah Hanna

Thank you for the delicious cookies, they were so- so good! Thank you for thinking of me as all of you are in my thoughts and prayers also! All have a Very Merry Blessed Xmas & a Happy Healthy New Year in "2012".

Love Kathaleen Moser &
Dave too!

To all my friends at St. John's,
Thank you so much for your cards, visits and wonderful tin of cookies and all those who helped bake and put it all together.

Sincerely,
Margaret Sedlock

Dear Friends at St. John's,
Your special ways and generous heart make a beautiful difference. Thank you so much. The lady that brought over the beautiful tin, card and all the hard workers every year. You make Christmas wonderful with all your kindness. God Bless everyone of you and a Big Thank You.

Love, Nancy Ditria and Sandra Morgan

To all my friends at St. John's,
A sincere thanks to all for the cards, "goodie bag" and Christmas Tin. Your thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated.

Irene Finelli

Dear Friends of St. John's ,
I wish to thank you for the can of cookies. I will enjoy them very much, but I think that I will share them with Betsy and the rest of the family at Xmas time. That is the thing to do. I am getting along as best I can, however I miss the Lehigh Valley, having been there for so long.

Jefferson Update (con't)

Q: What's your favorite moment at Jefferson?

All of them! It's meaningful for me to be there, being a former student. One boy asked to see me at lunch time. He wanted to know why I was a mailman. He asked me a bunch of questions and I asked him a bunch of questions, too. It's a multi-cultural school, just like we face in life today.

We still have opportunities for volunteers at the school. If you are interested, please contact the church office, and we will help you find your niche!

Lehigh Mission District Christmas Ingathering Josephine Wieder

We had another good year for our ingathering. On Wednesday December 7th we met at St. John's Lutheran Church in Emmaus to again distribute and box the items collected for the different agencies. This was my first year to help with this huge endeavor. The previous week at our church we met and organized our items that were given with the help of Donna Swoyer, Janice Walker, Mary Jane Kauffman, Carol Leffler Xander, and myself. Once at St. John's in Emmaus we waited until all the cars were unloaded by members of St. John's and a group from Keenan House. When this was done we were able to start the huge task of unboxing and boxing the items that were to go to the different agencies. As each group cleared their tables they then turned to the unfinished table that we were working on and helped us. The members of St. John's Allentown who helped with this were, Mary Jane Kauffman, Cheryl Hausman, June Sieger and myself. I think we had the biggest table of gifts which were distributed to the Topton Home. After we were done we had a church service to bless the gifts and a guest speaker from Daybreak. There was a luncheon for all who participated. Please keep this wonderful experience on your mind for next year and volunteer. What a great way to start your holiday season!

This year the number of articles given by this congregation were:

$50.00 Assigned Gifts

$90.00 in other Gifts from members

20 Wrapped gifts for the Topton Home

29 Toys

131 Topton home small items

17 Daybreak small items,

5 Turning Point small items

5 Sixth street shelter small items,

32 Allentown Rescue Mission small items

39 Carenet Pregnancy Center clothing and diapers

Thank you to all who volunteered, and gave gifts which I am certain brightened the holidays for all who received them. I wish to thank Mary Jane Kauffman for her help and guidance with this project

Thank You Knitters Josephine Wieder

We have again received knitted and crocheted items from several members of our church. I was very surprised at how many items we received. The bags of items that were distributed among the different agencies were:

Fleece Hats 14

Knitted Hats 47

Knitted Hats & Scarf Sets 4

Knitted Throws 3

Ear Muffs 1

Fleece Scarf 1

Gloves 21

We are very thankful to all who created these wonderful, beautiful, useful, very much needed items: Glendora Kemmerer, Maria Schmid, and Jane Brannan.

If your name was missed from this list please notify the office so I can give you the recognition you so greatly deserve.

Thanks for the Scholarships

Dear Mr. Krisko & St. John's,

Thank you for this generous scholarship. It is very much appreciated. It will be put to good use for school books and gas.

Thank you again,
Jessica Green

Dear St. John's & Mr. Krisko,

Thank you very much for awarding me this scholarship money. I'm honored to accept this. This money will help me pay for my last semester books. It is incredible that this is my final year of college already. I look forward to coming home and seeing everyone in the congregation once again.

Sincerely,
Lucas D. VanEmburg

Mr. Krisko & St. John's congregation,

I would like to take this opportunity to send you my endless thanks on awarding me with the Virginia Krisko Scholarship of $400.00. As I enter into my senior year as an elementary education major at Kutztown University, I know that your gracious award will be of great assistance in purchasing textbooks, gas during my commute, school supplies, as well as costs for my required testing and certification. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!

God Bless,
Courtney Green

Mr. Krisko and St. John's,

I have received your letter notifying me that I have been awarded a scholarship from the Virginia Krisko Scholarship Fund. Thank you for considering me for this scholarship. I plan to use the money awarded to further advance my education.

Thanks again,

Candle Frill Volunteers

Five very dedicated people stepped up to the plate and gave of their time and talent. About 550 candle frills were made for the services. A large portion were done by Ginny Crone. Ask Ginny when you see her just how many frills she made, you'll be surprised! Our helpers who keep us in candle frills are as follows:

Ginny Crone

Carol Kiefer

Cole Kiefer

SherriMarks

Laurie Christman

When asked next year please don't be shy, step right up and help to create frills for our candles.

Sugar Plum Angel Project Ronnee Moyer

Thank you to everyone who helped the Youth of St John's in the Sugar Plum Angel Project. After all expenses were paid, a profit of $1,004 was realized! Our appreciation goes out to all who purchased angels or who gave donations. It is gratifying to think that the angels have been given to friends and family and will grace so many Christmas trees for years to come.

The angels were made and sold by Sarah Moessner, Rachel Moessner, Elizabeth Moessner, Nancy Miller and Ronnee Moyer. Additional sales help was supplied by Judy Kosman, Cheryl Hausman, Elizabeth Leibenguth and Haleigh Moyer. Jim Kurtz and Donna Waldt were also on hand to sell angels on Saturday nights.

The money earned will be used for youth attendance at the ELCA Youth Convocation and other special events. In addition, at the December Youth Meeting, the teens decided to tithe or donate 10% of the money earned. Fifty dollars will go to the Jefferson School food bank, and fifty dollars will be sent to the Souper Bowl Sunday project to alleviate hunger which will be held in January of 2012.

This project proves many things: Our young members are willing to work to help fund projects. St John's supports the efforts of these young people. Our youth realize that they have a responsibility to share profits with the disadvantaged. And, perhaps most of all, the magic of a Christmas Sugar Plum Angel is admired and appreciated by all! New Years Blessings and Thanks to Everyone!

Opportunities To Grow . . . For Adults Pr. George

During February and March, adults will have three different opportunities to grow in the grace and love of God.

The first will be a study of the Basics of our Faith, which will be led by Pastor George and Vicar Carl. We will use a resource called "Come and Grow With Us", which will be provided for each person who participates. We will discuss beliefs about God and God's design for our lives; we will also discuss the practices of our faith, including prayer, baptism and communion.

This opportunity is appropriate for a wide variety of people: for adults who desire to be baptized or confirmed in the faith; for those who want to review and deepen their understanding of our faith; and for those who have questions about our faith, and want to explore what it means to be Christian in a non-judgmental setting.

The group will meet on Sundays during February and March. Each meeting will begin at 9:15 AM in the "Gathering Place". If you are interested in participating, you are encouraged to be in touch with the Church Office prior to February 5, so that we can plan to have the resources we need.

During these months, we will continue our Sunday morning Adult Class, which meets in the Vestry Room each Sunday, beginning at 9:15 AM. Cheryl Hilbert-

Gonzalez will lead the discussions on January 29 and February 5. The topic will be gambling. On January 29, the group will discuss "The Big Win", and on February 5, the group will consider, "What's the Cost?" Beginning on February 12, Ronnee Moyer will lead a consideration of Friendships. All adults are welcome and encouraged to attend this class. No need to sign up. Just come and grow!

Lastly, we will be offering a midweek "Breakfast and Bible Study", which will meet for 5 Wednesday mornings during the season of Lent. The location and theme are still being determined. Watch for news in our bulletin, on our web site and on Facebook!

January 5, The Morning Call ran an article under their Town Square — Your View section entitled “In art and in life, hard work is more important than talent.” The article was written by Wally Ely and begins: “Here’s my New Year’s resolution; ‘When Jim Musselman states his opinion, believe him. Or he’ll find a book somewhere that proves his point.’ The entire article is posted on the bulletin boards in the Gathering Place for you to read.

Thanks, Don (con’t)

Don’s positive attitude and approach has guided St. John’s through financial ups and downs, including the market downturn in 2008.

His consistent leadership has helped St. John’s be good stewards of the treasure entrusted to us, not least our endowment funds. He has often found ways to save dollars that have boosted our ministry.

We thank Don for his outstanding and dedicated service as our Treasurer. “Well done, thou good and faithful servant!”
